- Dinner dance – Wednesday 11 December. Year 6 decorate the hall and enjoy dinner with the staff and then a disco concluding with a parent photo opportunity and an exit through a parent guard of honour.

Thank you

- FFPS fun day – Friday 6 December. Year 6 will organise fun activities for the K-5 students as they say thank you to the school for their primary years. All children will wear “play” clothes for this special day.

Remember

- Photobook with memories and photos from the children’s time at FFPS. Parents will purchase this book.

Goodbye

- On the final day of the year there will be a year 6 farewell assembly followed by the traditional guard of honour where year 6 students walk through an arch of K-5 students toward the bell where they will ring it signifying their leaving of FFPSo their primary school years. Tissues will be required for this event. Wednesday 18 December.

Fundraising

ffspandcfundraising@gmail.com

As we reach the midpoint of Term 4, we would like to bid you farewell as your Fundraising Conveners. As of now, we are handing the reigns over to the wonderful Pip Bucknell.

Pip has Lucy in year 1 and Hugo will be starting kindy in January 2020 and she's super excited to be taking over fundraising activities next year.

On our way out, we would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to a few people - firstly, to our fabulous committee –
